EDITOR'S LETTER

In the past 3 years, the Cuban Genealogical Society has seen a steady growth in the interest of the population about the subject of genealogy.

The Society has participated in the World's Genealogical Conference held in Salt Lake City in August of 1990; the Genealogical Conference of Los Bexareños, held in San Antonio, Texas in Sep of 1990 and the Family History Conference held in New York in Oct of 1990. All these conferences were attended by thousands of persons enthusiastic about genealogy. The opportunity to be part of them was a learning and growing experience for us.

At this time we want to welcome the members in this new year of 1991 and thank them for their support in previous years. We also would like to encourage the members in sharing their knowledge with each others by submitting family histories or any other item of interest that they might have.

We have designed a new cover for the REVISTA and we previously improved our format in October of 1990. We hope that this changes are welcomed and that they will benefit the Society in the market place.

We welcome any comments and suggestions that the members might have. If there are any subjects that you would like see discussed in the REVISTA, please let us know and we will try to cover them in coming issues.

During the year of 1991 we are planning to finish the registers of Camagüey and continue with the register of the Catedral of Matanzas. We also have available the register from different churches in La Habana, Santiago, Santa Clara, etc. that will be computerized in a continuous basis.

We wish you a profitable year in your genealogical endeavors.

FRANCISCO XAVIER DE SANTA CRUZ
AUTHOR OF HISTORIAS DE FAMILIAS CUBANAS.

The author of Historias de Familias Cubanas was a Cuban aristocrat, with the titles of Conde de Jaruco and Conde de Mopox, but Francisco Xavier de Santa Cruz y Mallen was not any ordinary aristocrat. He dedicated his life to the investigation, organization and publication of the genealogy of hundreds of Cuban families in order to preserve the wealth of information that the documents in Cuba and Spain were able to offer. He also wanted to prove his lifelong belief, that the Cuban society was formed by representatives of many social classes of the Mother Country (Spain). In his works we find not only the genealogy of wealthy families, but of families of all walks of life that contributed to the Cuban society tapestry.

It has a dream of Francisco Xavier de Santa Cruz to instill in the Cubans in general the desire to build the family and individual integrity that translates in the prosperity of a nation. He believed that if he helped a man to get to know about his roots, he would be planting the seed of the pursuit of excellence in his soul.

The collection of Historias de Familias Cubanas has reached the number of 9 volumes with the interminable work of the son of Francisco de Santa Cruz, Joaquin de Santa Cruz, who continued where his father left off at the time of his death and published the last 3 volumes. There might be a 10th volume to be published in the future, but Joaquin died before finish the work and it is unknown what will happen with this laast volume of the collection. In his work he used the notes that his father and associated had brought to the United States from Cuba and he died last year in pursuit of his goal: to bring to pass the dream of his father.

The following index includes all the volumes published to the present and they total 792 family histories.

Parish Register of EL Sagrario, Camaguey, Cuba

Marriages 1668-1710

This listing consists of Volume 2 and Volume 1, in that order as it appears in the original transcriptions. The REVISTA of CGS, Volume 1:3, 1:4 and 2:1 contain the first parts of this series of El Sagrario. In them we mentioned that Volume 1 seems to have been missing when the transcriptions were made. This was based on the fact that the transcription papers began with Volume 2 and went on the Volume 3, etc. While computerizing this listing we ran across Volume 1, which was at the end of a group of the Volume 2 transcriptions. We have kept the order in which the transcriptions were taken, for the benefit of future references.

Volume 2 begins with the year 1697 and ends with the year 1710. Volume 1 begins with the year 1668 and ends with the year 1680. In addition, in this batch of papers, there are confirmations from the year 1671. These entries are identified with a C for the person being confirmed.

The information contained in the following list has the same format as previously used. To recap: The surname and given name are found first, followed by the sex of the individual, the date of the marriage, a column indicating whether the individual listed is the one being married (M), or confirmed (C), or is associated genealogically (G), this G follows the names of parents or other spouses. The reference numbers finish out the line. The numbers at the very end refer to the page and entry number of the original transcriptions. These are helpful in looking at all individuals identified in a given entry and may also be used for further reference in correspondence with CGS to get a print out of the entry or in using the manuscripts found at the Hialeah Family History Library.

THE SANCHEZ VALLEJO FAMILY OF MATANZAS, CUBA

Extract from a family history prepared by Mayra Sánchez-Johnson and Gelys Sánchez-Monte de Oca

JOSE MARIA SANCHEZ CUESTA

The last name of Sánchez is patronymic and derives from the name "Sancho".

In Asturias, a province in the northern coast of Spain, the oldest of the Sánchez clans were in Cangas de Onís, a city in Oviedo, and it is believed that the Sánchez of Asturias all come from this house. Another Sánchez clan was established in Gijón and another in Ribadesella. All these clans used coats of arms that were very similar or the same, which leads to the belief that they are all related in origin.

The Sánchez that are our ancestors were from a village called San Juan de Berbio, situated to the south of Infiestos, which was about twenty five miles east of Oviedo, the capital of Asturias. Infiestos is a village that has inscriptions from the times of the Romans. In the 1840's it had 416 inhabitants. It belongs to the Diocese of Oviedo and it includes thirty one parishes in the adjacent villages, one of them being San Juan de Berbio.

In Infiestos the market and the "ferias" were very well attended and had the greatest number of customers in Asturias. The production of walnuts, chestnuts, filbert nuts and woods were abundant and were shipped to the rest of Spain by the port of Ribadesella. Since the year 1773 to the present, every Monday, a market day or "feria" is held and the nuts and cattle are sold. The good locality of the town in the valley and the central position in the roads to many different cities in the northern parts of Spain, assures a successful market.

From this commercial environment the brothers Ramón, José María and Angel Sánchez Cuesta came to Cuba. They were the sons of Manuel Sánchez de la Fuente and Maria del Portal Cuesta Bermudez. These three brothers had been left orphans when their mother died in 1881 and their father died in 1884, leaving José María age 16 years, Angel younger than 16 and Ramón over 18 years of age.

We do not know exactly which year the brothers came to Cuba, but we calculate the it was in the early 1890's. Ramón went his own way when they arrived to Cuba, and is whereabouts were never known. This leave the possibility of cousins in Cuba that we do not know. José María and Angel established themselves in Itabo, a town in the north part of Matanzas, east of Hato Nuevo. This town of Hato Nuevo, changed its name to José Martí in 1898, or Martí as it is known today.

Soon after the brothers got established in Itabo, Angel went back to his home town and married María Cuesta, a cousin.

José María had opened a general store on Real Street, the commercial street of the town, where all the businesses were located, with the exception of the movie house and the electricity plant, both of which were on Inglés Street.

One day a young lady walked by the front of the general store and noticed José María. Following the costumes of the time she dropped her handkerchief so that José María could pick it up for her. After this first encounter, José María started to visit the house of the young lady and soon thereafter he asked for her hand in marriage. Isabel Vallejo accepted the proposal.

In 1898 José María married Isabel Vallejo Sardiña, born in Guamutas, the daughter of José Anacleto Vallejo and Adela Sardiña.

ISABEL MARIA VALLEJO SARDIÑA

The Fernández-Vallejo are from the Mountains of Santander, an ancient region on the north coast of Spain, where they were "hidalgos" and serve in government posts for generations.

The father of Isabel Vallejo, José Anacleto Fernández-Vallejo, had come to Cuba in the 1840's, from Tanos, Santander. This village of Tanos, is situated near Torrelavega, a town that is some twenty five miles southwest of Santander, the capital of the province of Santander. This town of Torrelavega is very old and some attribute its founding to Garcilaso de la Vega in 1387. In the 1840's it had 754 inhabitants. It belongs to the Diocese of Santander and it included 88 villages in the 1840's, one of them Tanos.

José Anacleto was the son of Santos Fernández-Vallejo and María Antonia González-Bustamante. Santos, had been born in Hijos, a village at the south of Torrelavega, in the valley of Toranzo.

In the Chacillería of Valladolid we found the "provanzas" paper of Santos Fernández-Vallejo, done in 1827, after he moved from Hijos to Tanos. He submitted this "provanza" to establish his rights as hidalgo and to be able to pass them on to his son, José Anacleto, who had been born that year.

The mother of José Anacleto died when he was only 4 years old. In 1833 Santos remarried to Agueda Fernández-Castaneda and they had thirteen children. José Anacleto, being the oldest, was the godfather to four of his half brothers and sisters.

The grandfather and great-grandfather of José Anacleto, both named Antonio Fernández-Vallejo, had been Regidores Provinciales (provincial councilman) and Regidores Locales (local councilman) in the valley of Toranzo. These positions were only given to hidalgos.

When José Anacleto arrived in Cuba he shortened his name, which was José Anacleto Fernández-Vallejo y González-Bustamante, to José Anacleto Vallejo y Bustamante. His children were all given the name of Vallejo only. José Anacleto established in Guamutas a cattle ranch and a farm. There he married Adela Sardiña Sánchez, born in Guamutas and they had eight children, whose names were: Manuel, José Ignacio, Enrique, Francisca, Antonia, Isabel, Lucinda and Ramona.

Adela Sardiña y Sánchez, daughter of Manuel Sardiña and María Petrona Sánchez, was of Cuban descent for many generations. The Sardiñas had arrived to Cuba in the 1600's, coming from Canary Islands and their descendant can be found in many provinces of Cuba. Of this line we have much to learn as soon as the way is opened.

THE SANCHEZ VALLEJO.

José María Sanchez Cuesta and Isabel Vallejo Sardiña had the following children: Ofelia in 1898, Oswaldo in 1900, María Isabel in 1901, Angel in 1903, Aida in 1905, Heriberto in 1907, Basilio Manuel in 1908, Liduvina in 1910, José María in 1912, and a girl who was stillborn in 1913 or 1914.

When the first children were old enough to go to school the family moved from Itabo to Cárdenas so the children could go to private school. José María bought a hardware store in Cárdenas, called "La Polaca" and rented the general store in Itabo to his cousin Manuel Cuesta.

The family lived in Cárdenas for ten years and then moved back to Itabo when their oldest daughter moved there after getting married. José María took over the general store again and opened another store two blocks away.

Ofelia Sánchez Vallejo married Francisco Seguí and they had three children: Jorge, Ramón and Eva Seguí Sánchez. This family always lived in Itabo, Matanzas. Ofelia died in the early 1950's.

Oswaldo Sánchez Vallejo married Regla Sarasa and they had two sons: Oswaldo and Orlando Sánchez Sarasa. Oswaldo was the owner of the store "La casa de las Sedas", which sold silk materials and was located in La Habana. Oswaldo died in 1959 and his son Oswaldo was killed by de Castro regime in 1962.

María Isabel Sánchez Vallejo married Domingo Espinel and they had one son: Domingo Espinel Sánchez. This family always lived in Itabo, Matanzas. Maria Isabel died in 1967.

Angel Sánchez Vallejo married Adela de Armas and they had two daughters: Gelcys and Ela Sánchez de Armas. Angel took over the general store after his father died and managed it until he moved to La Habana 1936 with his young family. After being a widower for many years he married María Antonia Ruiz de Ugarrio and they had two daughters: Mayra and Zeyda Sánchez Ruiz de Ugarrio.

Aida Sánchez Vallejo married Ricardo Triana Pulido and they had five children: Oreste, Sergio, Roberto, Hector and Isabel Triana Sánchez. This family lived in Itabo until they moved to La Habana in the early 1950's.

Heriberto Sánchez Vallejo married Maria Antonia Piñeiro and they had two daughters: Daisy and Gladys. Heriberto had opened a factory of shoulder pads for men's suit in La Habana and his family always lived there. Heriberto died in September of 1976.

Bacilio Manuel Sánchez Vallejo never married. He became a policeman and worked at La Habana jail house. Manuel died in June of 1982.

Liduvina Sánchez Vallejo married Adraino de Armas and they had two daughters: Yolanda and Adria. This family always lived in La Habana.

José María Sánchez Vallejo married Dalia Iñigo and they had one son, who died before he was one year old. José, after his divorce, married Dora Castellanos, and they had no children. José always worked with his brother Heriberto in the shoulder pad factory, and his family always lived in La Habana. José María died in 1973.

José María Sánchez Cuesta died at the age of sixty one, on November 16, 1929, of a heart attack, while sitting on the porch of his house in Itabo. Most of his grand children did not have the opportunity of knowing him. His children remember him as being a gentle man that left the reprimands of the children to his wife, because he did not like to get upset with them.

Isabel Vallejo Sardiña lived to be ninety two years old. After becoming a widow at the age of fifty, she lived with her youngest daughter, Liduvina most of the time. She was always healthy and was very talented in crochet. She loved to sit on the porch and crochet table-cloths, doilies, bedspreads, children's coats, children's socks, etc. and they were all very beautiful. She loved to visit and play with her grandchildren, and was a very patient and loving person. She died of old age on July 1, 1971, at her house in La Habana.
